

Kriss Marion

Kriss Marion is a first-generation farmer in Blanchardville, Wisconsin, and president of the Wisconsin Farmers Union South Central Chapter. She serves on the Lafayette County Tourism board and the Blanchardville Woman's Club.

Though she's not a dairy farmer, she gets up at 4am every morning to teach Boot Camp in the high school gym at 4:45am or greets the sun in a nearby goat barn where she practices Ashtanga Yoga. Her Circle M Market Farm features a vegetable CSA (Community Supported Agriculture), field-to-table dinners, poultry, livestock, a bed and breakfast, fiber arts, and a variety of classes---including fitness!
